

INTIMACY

The way God designed it

1. The Bible doesn't _____ life today.

The question to ask when considering sex with someone:
Am I _____ to that person?

God doesn't call us to _____ in to our desires. He calls us to _____ them.

If you have to _____ your position, you probably need to _____ your position.

2. Sex produces _____.

If our primary source of intimacy is _____, we'll find that we have no capacity for _____.

This is a form of the hedonistic paradox.

3. Sex determines _____.

This doesn't work for two reasons

- The hedonistic paradox
- We idealize the past

Q: If you want to know if you're compatible with a person what should you look for?

Final Thought:

Nobody has outsinned the grace of God.

INTIMACY

The way God designed it

1. The Bible doesn't _____ life today.

The question to ask when considering sex with someone:
Am I _____ to that person?

God doesn't call us to _____ in to our desires. He calls us to _____ them.

If you have to _____ your position, you probably need to _____ your position.

2. Sex produces _____.

If our primary source of intimacy is _____, we'll find that we have no capacity for _____.

This is a form of the hedonistic paradox.

3. Sex determines _____.

This doesn't work for two reasons

- The hedonistic paradox
- We idealize the past

Q: If you want to know if you're compatible with a person what should you look for?

Final Thought:

Nobody has outsinned the grace of God.