

Room for Doubt

How would God allow tragedy and suffering?

1. God [IS / IS NOT] the creator of evil.

Genuine love always involves _____ choice.

Two kinds of evil

- _____ evil
- _____ evil

God created the _____ for evil because that was the only way to create the potential for _____ love.

2. God can use suffering to accomplish good.

God [DOES / DOES NOT] make this promise to everyone.

The story of the world _____ over.

3. We can turn bitter or we can turn to _____.

Jesus gives us two things we need when dealing with suffering

- _____ to deal with the present
- _____ to face our future

God's ultimate answer to suffering is the incarnation, not an explanation. – Peter Kreeft

Room for Doubt

How would God allow tragedy and suffering?

4. God [IS / IS NOT] the creator of evil.

Genuine love always involves _____ choice.

Two kinds of evil

- _____ evil
- _____ evil

God created the _____ for evil because that was the only way to create the potential for _____ love.

5. God can use suffering to accomplish good.

God [DOES / DOES NOT] make this promise to everyone.

The story of the world _____ over.

6. We can turn bitter or we can turn to _____.

Jesus gives us two things we need when dealing with suffering

- _____ to deal with the present
- _____ to face our future

God's ultimate answer to suffering is the incarnation, not an explanation. – Peter Kreeft