

PARTY PEOPLE

Listen. Learn. Live.

Review: What are Party People?

Bible Text Today → Leviticus 23:23-25; Numbers 29:1-6; 1 Cor 15:52

Q: When was the Festival of Trumpets?

A: On the _____ month of the _____ calendar.

The Israelites had many kings, but when the trumpets began to blow the _____ king of Israel was _____.

Q: What does the blowing of trumpets mean?

A: That God was _____, and that we should _____.

Applying the truths of this festival means that we let God AWAKEN our heart.

God used Moses to help show his people that he was _____ them to a special place with Him.

Q: How does this festival point us back to Party People?

A: By reminding us that 1) We have a reason to _____, and 2) We are the _____ of the world.

The DIFFERENCE MAKER

Mark 9:24 – A desire to have the greatest _____ in what God can and will do.

Q: Are we willing to take risks as a church body if it means doing something we've NEVER done before?

A: If it involves helping others the way that God has helped us, then _____.

“Faith begins where man’s power ends” – George Muller

PARTY PEOPLE

Listen. Learn. Live.

Review: What are Party People?

Bible Text Today → Leviticus 23:23-25; Numbers 29:1-6; 1 Cor. 15:52

Q: When was the Festival of Trumpets?

A: On the _____ month of the _____ calendar.

The Israelites had many kings, but when the trumpets began to blow the _____ king of Israel was _____.

Q: What does the blowing of trumpets mean?

A: That God was _____, and that we should _____.

Applying the truths of this festival means that we let God AWAKEN our heart.

God used Moses to help show his people that he was _____ them to a special place with Him.

Q: How does this festival point us back to Party People?

A: By reminding us that 1) We have a reason to _____, and 2) We are the _____ of the world.

The DIFFERENCE MAKER

Mark 9:24 – A desire to have the greatest _____ in what God can and will do.

Q: Are we willing to take risks as a church body if it means doing something we've NEVER done before?

A: If it involves helping others the way that God has helped us, then _____.

“Faith begins where man’s power ends” – George Muller