

@Faith
Faith Is . . .
Hebrews 11

Challenge: Read Hebrews 11 as a family and make a list of the Old Testament stories talked about and then read one per day as a family.

Faith is:

What are the “two words”?

1. _____
2. _____

What do they mean?

1. We have the _____ to have _____.

Q: What do we hope for?

- Hebrews 10:22

A: The thing we hope for is the ability to _____ to God.

Because of Jesus this is a realistic possibility.

- He was born to live the life of perfect _____ that we are _____ of living.
- He was born to _____ the death of disobedience that we are all _____ of.

2. Our conviction is that God is _____.

Q: What do you know about God that causes you to believe He is worthy?

Cain and Abel

Cain viewed offerings as an _____.

Abel viewed offerings as an _____.

Abel’s assurance was _____ with God.

Abel’s conviction was that God is _____.

Q: How do we bring an offering of faith to God?

Anything less is an offering far too small.

@Faith
Faith Is . . .
Hebrews 11

Challenge: Read Hebrews 11 as a family and make a list of the Old Testament stories talked about and then read one per day as a family.

Faith is:

What are the “two words”?

1. _____
2. _____

What do they mean?

1. We have the _____ to have _____.

Q: What do we hope for?

- Hebrews 10:22

A: The thing we hope for is the ability to _____ to God.

Because of Jesus this is a realistic possibility.

- He was born to live the life of perfect _____ that we are _____ of living.
- He was born to _____ the death of disobedience that we are all _____ of.

2. Our conviction is that God is _____.

Q: What do you know about God that causes you to believe He is worthy?

Cain and Abel

Cain viewed offerings as an _____.

Abel viewed offerings as an _____.

Abel’s assurance was _____ with God.

Abel’s conviction was that God is _____.

Q: How do we bring an offering of faith to God?

Anything less is an offering far too small.