

@Trust
Our Hope
Romans 7:1-6

Our _____ for _____ isn't in how much we do _____.

Act 1.

To be ruled by the law is to have the law as the dominant
_____ in your life.

When we say, "I'm a pretty good person because I . . ." We make our lives into a _____ reel. God doesn't see the highlights. He sees the _____ footage.

When we're ruled by the law it:

1. Reduces God to _____ brandishing the whip of law
2. It reduces our motivation for _____ to _____ of punishment.
3. It reduces our quality of _____.
4. It reduces our affection for _____ and deadens our _____.

Act 2.

Q: Why does Paul switch to using the imagery of marriage?

- To say that _____ sets someone free from the law.

The death that Jesus commands His followers to participate in is
_____. (Romans 6:1-4; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 2:37-38)

Act 3.

To be ruled by Christ is to have Jesus as the dominant
_____ in your life.

When we're ruled by Christ it:

1. Elevates _____ to his proper position of _____.
2. Elevates our motivation for _____ to _____ adoration.
3. Elevates our quality of _____.
4. Elevates our _____ for God and gives us a heart of flesh.

Our hope for salvation isn't in how much we do right. Our hope for salvation is in Jesus Christ.

- We can't trust the law for salvation because then we'd have to be perfect. We can trust Jesus for salvation because He is perfect.

@Trust
Our Hope
Romans 7:1-6

Our _____ for _____ isn't in how much we do _____.

Act 1.

To be ruled by the law is to have the law as the dominant
_____ in your life.

When we say, "I'm a pretty good person because I . . ." We make our lives into a _____ reel. God doesn't see the highlights. He sees the _____ footage.

When we're ruled by the law it:

1. Reduces God to _____ brandishing the whip of law
2. It reduces our motivation for _____ to _____ of
punishment.
3. It reduces our quality of _____.
4. It reduces our affection for _____ and deadens our _____.

Act 2.

Q: Why does Paul switch to using the imagery of marriage?

- To say that _____ sets someone free from the law.

The death that Jesus commands His followers to participate in is
_____. (Romans 6:1-4; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts 2:37-38)

Act 3.

To be ruled by Christ is to have Jesus as the dominant
_____ in your life.

When we're ruled by Christ it:

1. Elevates _____ to his proper position of _____.
2. Elevates our motivation for _____ to _____ adoration.
3. Elevates our quality of _____.
4. Elevates our _____ for God and gives us a heart of flesh.

Our hope for salvation isn't in how much we do right. Our hope for salvation is in Jesus Christ.

- We can't trust the law for salvation because then we'd have to be perfect. We can trust Jesus for salvation because He is perfect.