

PRACTICAL
FAITH
MATTHEW 6:1-15

Verses 1-8 are a warning against looking for _____ in the wrong places.

When your goal is to impress _____, your goal cannot be intimacy with _____.

Pray to God, not people.

Praying to people is the surest way to make prayer into a _____.

The joy of prayer is _____ the things that matter most to you, with God who loves _____.

We bring the things that are distracting us _____ God _____ God.

Q: What distractions are you bringing before God?

All the pronouns in this passage are [Singular / Plural]

Q: Why does this matter?

Keys to Joy in the Sermon on the Mount

1. Make sure it's _____ Father, not _____ Father
2. There is more joy in seeing God's will be done than seeing our requests fulfilled.
3. Remember to thank God for what He has _____ given.
4. Forgiveness not only fills you with joy but empties the poison of _____.
5. Admit you _____ God.

I don't want us to learn in heaven what could have been here on earth if only we had asked.

PRACTICAL
FAITH
MATTHEW 6:1-15

Verses 1-8 are a warning against looking for _____ in the wrong places.

When your goal is to impress _____, your goal cannot be intimacy with _____.

Pray to God, not people.

Praying to people is the surest way to make prayer into a _____.

The joy of prayer is _____ the things that matter most to you, with God who loves _____.

We bring the things that are distracting us _____ God _____ God.

Q: What distractions are you bringing before God?

All the pronouns in this passage are [Singular / Plural]

Q: Why does this matter?

Keys to Joy in the Sermon on the Mount

1. Make sure it's _____ Father, not _____ Father
2. There is more joy in seeing God's will be done than seeing our requests fulfilled.
3. Remember to thank God for what He has _____ given.
4. Forgiveness not only fills you with joy but empties the poison of _____.
5. Admit you _____ God.

I don't want us to learn in heaven what could have been here on earth if only we had asked.